Grand Staff Reference Sheet - Naming Space Notes» 190.2 KiB - 663 hits - 24 January 2022 In most cases, I tend to avoid having students use mnemonic devices as a tool to identifying notes on the grand staff. The list is divided into two sections: beginner concepts, and more advanced concepts. The activities on the sheet encourage students to engage creatively with their piano playing, often with the help of a friend or family member. This printable can be used to help students improvise within the 12-bar blues by themselves, or as a duet with the teacher or another students. Adult students can fill this form out as a way of introduction, and parents can fill it out while the teacher is working with the student. Give students a print-out of the appropriate level and fill in each box of the chart with a checkmark or sticker as each requirement is mastered. The goal is for the student to visually memorize the pattern of black and white keys for each 5FP, and this worksheet will help with that. Or, students can use these at the piano, and lay the cards right on the piano keyboard, matching the groups of black keys appropriately. Materials needed: 1 or 2 dice (depending on how fast you'd like the game to progress) and several pawns (colored glass baubles from the dollar store work well). This page contains FREE piano/theory worksheets, sheet music, lesson plans, and other resources for music teachers and students. Please understand that these charts CANNOT function as a replacement for the 2015 RCM Piano Syllabus - they are merely practice guides.
